e British Periodical PREMIUMS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

COTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1 LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative.)
2 EDINBURG REVIEW (Whig.)
3 NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church.)
4 WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)
5 BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURG MAGAZINE (Tory.)

E great and important events—Religious, Political and Military—now agitating the nations of the Old World, give to these publications an interest and value never before possessed. They occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the newspaper, and the ponderous Tome of the historian, written long after the living interest of the facts he records shall have passed away. The progress of the War in the East occupies a large space in their pages. Every movement is closely noted, whether of friend or foe, and all about can only be posted up. The letters from the Crimea ... in Blackwood's Magazine, from two of its most popular contributors, give a more intelligible and reliable account of the movements of the belligerents than can elsewhere be found.

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical; but politics forms only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, especially during the present exciting state of European affairs, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

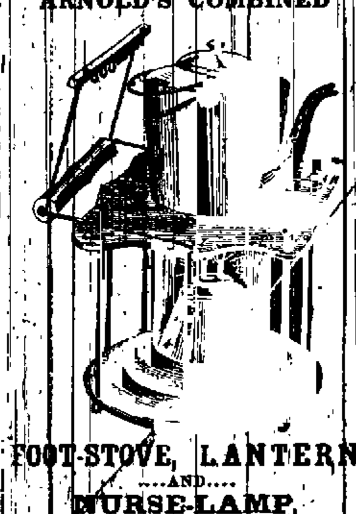
ARNOLD'S COMBINED



FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN,

....AND....

NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public.

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling. It is heated by an oil, alcohol, or fluid lamp, the flame of which is protected from every external object.

As a LANTERN, it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage.

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness, it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm, beside giving the light desired, and for cooking in small quantities. For making tea, &c., it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a flat-iron heated in the same length of time.

In fact, the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one. No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say anything more respecting its adaptability to a hundred purposes would be telling what our readers can all see for themselves.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at No. 15, 17 and 19 ... al Street, Bangor. ALBERT NOYES.

Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Lime,

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

TESTIMONIAL.

Let all read the following, which is but one of many testimonials being constantly received:

Dr. Wilbor. Dear Sir—I have found in the course of a long and extensive practice, that the seeds of Consumption are by no means to be found only arising from a individual causes, but that only ... draft upon physical constitution may leave the sufferer in that prostrate condition which induces disease. Thus in fevers, severe colds, and in rheumatic affections, those great chambers of the human frame, the lungs, being perhaps the nicest and most sensitive compilation of the human organization, are made to be the principal sufferers, ... in that ... which ... or ... of disease ... of the ... passages is prevented a free circulation ... necessary to air ... cell of the chest. While the ... constitutional ... of the lungs continues, it is impossible ... the disease ... consumption.

In a series of long practice, I have found Cod Liver Oil a great and efficient agent. I ... to your ... of the article prepared by you, and known as Cod Liver Oil and Lime. I instantly realized the propriety of your combination, being for years an experimental chemist, and well knowing the medical properties of the Lime, which are reproductive and healing, ... immensely ... in the treatment of Consumption. I accordingly applied your remedy, and in five months of constant practice I have found that result most surprising. Since the first trial I have depended almost entirely in all consumptive cases upon your Cod Liver Oil and Lime. I have found the medical qualities to be a healing and natural tonic, and that the lime aided materially the process of reformation of the diseased cells of the lungs, which have decayed from various causes. Moreover, I have, after a careful analysis of your preparation, satisfied myself that it not only answers the immediate want of the physician, but regards a recreative agent, but also to sustenance, ... strengthening the rest of the system, and thus giving to a consumptive invalid just what is wanted, viz: the means of sustaining the body while the required cure is effected.

Having carefully tested these facts to my entire satisfaction, in an extended practice, I do not hesitate to commend to all consumptive invalids—Try Wilbor's Cod Liver Oil and Lime.

This lady has traveled through the principal cities of the United States, and is acknowledged by the scientific and professional men, to be superior to any Clairvoyant they ever consulted. She entrances herself, and can see and trace things transpiring in all parts of the world, and describes persons and places. Also, advice given in law cases, business matters, matrimony, &c., &c. Her powers have enabled her to perform some of the most astonishing cures of diseases that have been pronounced incurable by physicians. She can see the workings of the physical system so clearly as to be able to describe the patient's feelings, the nature and locality of the disease, either present or absent. Her medicines are purely vegetable, being roots and herbs. All her prescriptions carefully put up by Dr. Main, at her residence, No. 16 Prospect street, Boston.

Muriate of Lime!

The high price of the special manures, Guano, &c., first led to the composition of a fertilizer which should combine all their good qualities, but whose price should place it within the reach of the poorest of the cultivators of the soil. The increased demand of last season, together with the voluntary testimony of many who have fully proved its efficacy, lends the manufacturer to believe that the object has been obtained in the Muriate of Lime, and has induced him to extend the facilities for its manufacture. It has been tried upon almost every variety of soil, but is especially adapted to Cereal Plants, Grass, Corn, Wheat, &c.

A pamphlet, with testimonials, will be forwarded to any address, and all orders by mail, accompanied by the cash, punctually attended to. It is sold at the following fixed prices:—For less than 10 Bbls. $1,10 per Bbl.; over 10 Bbls. $1,00; or in Bags of 150 lbs., at ... per Bag, delivered at any depot or wharf in Boston, or Charlestown.

Cheap & Convenient Building.

Door, Sash and Blind Factory.

A. DUNBAR

HAS been very successful in completing several contracts for Door Frames, Doors, Window Frames and Sashes, and Blinds, for good dwelling-houses and other buildings to be erected in this city, the coming season. He has excellent workmen in his employ, and has superior stock, so that he is now able to supply to those about to build the best articles of Door Frames, Window Frames, Sashes, and Blinds, made to any dimensions and of superior quality either for a whole building or for a less quantity. The trouble and expense of building is very much lessened by having these articles made separately, so that the carpenters have only to put them in their place in the structure.

This business is now become so well systemized that only a small margin is left in knowing beforehand the cost of a dwelling-house, while the work is of a uniform excellent quality.

Any one interested can examine specimens of the work at the factory, near the Rose Place, or at the store of M. S. Jackson, on Exchange st., and at either place any article may be obtained of large quantities ordered.

Mr. Dunbar is also prepared to furnish Window Blinds ready painted, and will hang them at the shortest notice.

By long experience, and by determined perseverance, the subscriber is now enabled to suit his customers, both in quality and price, and so well organized is the business that no man should now think of building in the old and slow and imperfect methods.

AUGUSTA, Saturday, 2 P. M.

The hearing in the case of Judge Davis commenced this morning, before the Convention of the two Branches.

The rules of the Convention were first read. (They exclude all debate and all motions, and also deny to the respondent the privilege of presenting any testimony except written testimony.) The charges made by the Senate were then read by the Clerk, and intimation given that the respondent might be heard by himself, or counsel.

Henry W. Paine, Esq., then made the opening argument in defence. He remarked that the principal counsel for Judge Davis was unable, on account of illness, to appear at the opening to-day; but that it was probable he would be present on Monday morning. From the possibility, however, that this principal counsel might be prevented from attending, it had been deemed advisable to obtain other counsel, and the respondent had therefore accepted the services of Hon. Francis O. J. Smith, who had kindly volunteered.

In opening the case Mr. Paine presented a protest against the proceedings, in order to save all the rights of his client, and not with any disposition to interpose obstacles—setting forth that the Convention was not duly constituted, and the hearing not such a hearing as he is entitled to by the Constitution—that removal by Address is not the proper mode of proceeding under such charges—that there had been no action whatever on the House in this matter—that Judge Davis had received no notice for a hearing before any Convention, &c. &c.

Waiving the objections, however, to the constitutionality of the proceedings, the respondent's counsel would present an answer in writing, to the charges made, and ask that it might be placed on the Journal of the Senate, by the side of the charges themselves. The answer was accordingly read by Mr. Paine.

Mr. P. then said, the respondent protests that under the rules of the Convention he does not enjoy his Constitutional rights, and to save those rights he submitted a written paper alledging that it is incumbent upon the Legislature to introduce testimony to prove their charges, and that the respondent has a right to introduce evidence, both written and oral, in his defence. This statement or request, the respondent asked to have entered upon the Journal of the Senate, with the charges; but the President of the Convention said the request could not be entertained under the rules which the Convention had adopted.

Mr. Paine then presented various written statements—among them one from Gen. S. J. Anderson, of Portland, setting forth that he and Messrs. Howard and Clifford, the counsel for Mr. Sheriff Emery, had notified Judge Davis, some days before the decision made by him, that Emery would appear as a claimant to be employed as the officer of the Court; and that this notice was given in order that Judge Davis might be prepared to meet the question; that Judge Davis then expressed a great reluctance to decide the question, and a desire that it might be presented to the full Court.

Another of the statements presented was from several members of the Cumberland bar, detailing what occurred at the time the decision was made—and declaring that the question then submitted as between men claiming to be officers of the Court, was one which the Court was obliged to decide, and could not avoid.

After the introduction of some other papers, Mr. Paine said this was the only evidence which, by the rules of the Convention, Judge Davis is permitted to introduce; and no proof whatever of the charges appears to be adduced. He appealed to the members of the Convention, however, before proceeding to the last fatal step, to ascertain whether the alleged causes for removal are in fact sustained—whether the facts proved in the case constitute such causes for removal as are contemplated by the Constitution.

Mr. Paine remarked that although by the language of the Constitution the power of removal by Address is unlimited—that power is in reality and necessarily limited and restrained by the general provisions and pervading spirit of the organic law, and among these limitations is this—that it is not Constitutional [illegible] for the two branches to remove an officer by Address, for causes which, if true, would authorize an impeachment. In this case he has a right to demand competent legal proof of the charges against him—and he cannot rightfully be removed upon any mere rumors and without any trial whatever, as is proposed in this case. We have now, however, the high authority of this Legislature that charges of this kind, for misdemeanor in office, may be made by either branch, (not by the [illegible]) [illegible] the charges [illegible] necessary—that the accused has no power to introduce witnesses in his defence—and that [illegible] the absence of all testimony on either side, the Legislature may proceed and request the Governor to remove Judge Davis, just as if the charges were legally proved to be true.

Mr. Paine in a most [illegible] argument of three or four hours, showed the monstrous injustice, as well as real unconstitutionality, of doctrines like these, and warned gentlemen against the fatal tendencies of establishing the precedent of removing Judges of our Courts in this way, and for no better cause, certainly, than for wrong decisions. In this connection, he humorously suggested to gentlemen that there never was a time when politicians could more properly take to themselves the admonition of Scripture, "Let him who thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall," and [illegible] possibly the next Legislature might be of a different political complexion from the present, and not possessing the calm [illegible] for which the present Legislature is so celebrated, and finding this weapon of removal by Address ready prepared and sharpened to their hands, they might follow the precedent set, and remove all the Judges, if they should chance to make, what they (the next Legislature,) should deem a wrong decision upon this very question of the Executive appointments.

This, of course, was merely thrown out as showing to what fatal results the argument action now taken might lead.

Mr. Paine will finish this afternoon, and will be followed by Mr. Smith.

It is expected that Mr. Choate will make the closing argument on Monday.

The Senate has receded and concurred with the House in rejecting the amendment to the Liquor bill, which says, Town Officers "shall" license, instead of may, and the bill came up for final passage in the House this morning.

Lyman, of Portland, tried to put on the gag of the previous question again. But Mr. Seammon, of Saco, was a little too quick for him—moving the indefinite postponement, and partly finishing a speech against the bill, before the time for the Convention arrived.

The nomination of Dr. Jordan, for Recorder of your Police Court, was confirmed this morning, after a most unexpected fight against it by Councillor Strick and [illegible] I have no particular admiration for any of the candidates for this office; but the Doctor had certainly cause for complaint at the usage he has received from some of his party friends, who, from underground motives in reality, though ostensibly from objections to his personal character, have opposed his confirmation. The matter has created much hard feeling, and M. Roberts has floored the Land Governor in this battle.

"But it is foregone and settled that Woodbury Davis must fall. All the eloquence and mists of Choate and Paine cannot avail to save him."—Cor. Bangor Journal.

The secret caucus of the coalition held by its members at Augusta prior to the introduction of the resolves to remove Judge Davis, decreed that the removal should take place, happen what might. The correspondent of the Bangor Journal simply reiterates the decree. Every step taken by the coalition regarding this matter has been in reference to the decree. But what shall be said of men who are acting as jurors in a public trial, pledging themselves beforehand to vote for removal without regard to any evidence or argument which may be brought before them; and deciding without notice to the party accused, that no testimony shall be offered except in a particular form? This is the case at Augusta in the case of Judge Davis; and because an honest and earnest protest goes up from the people, the political hacks who sustain these outrages, pronounce it "Howls of the [illegible]." In this way they attempt to hide [illegible] over the vitals of the constitution, the independence of the judiciary, and the heart-cherished sentiment of the people.

The Kennebec Journal pertinently remarks that as the coalition members of the Legislature have determined beforehand to act as a unit in addressing Judge Davis from the bench of the Supreme Court, it will not be necessary for them to hear any arguments, even from Mr. Choate, and they can dispose of their seats at five dollars each, to those who do wish to hear the arguments. The suggestion is a good one. A great number of persons in this city would be glad to take the seats during the arguments, at even more than the price named, but seeing no chance to get within the sound of Mr. Choate's voice, are now obliged to relinquish the idea of making the attempt. Some persons have even returned from Augusta in the utter hopelessness of getting a chance to hear.

Dr. Jordan's nomination to the office of Recorder of the Municipal Court by the Governor was confirmed by the Executive Council on Saturday. The Doctor is an old and out Pierce man, and his appointment to the office is an evidence of the [illegible] of that portion of the [illegible] opposed to Gen. Pierce. The [illegible] should not be [illegible] delegation of Maine [illegible] Convention should [illegible] of General Pierce as the [illegible] been hinted [illegible] Doctor with [illegible] [illegible]

The Birth of a Prince.

By the latest foreign arrival, we have the intelligence of the birth of an heir to the crown of France. By previous steamers we had intelligence of all the arrangements for the expected event, fairly and plainly put down in print, filling several columns in the newspaper. We have no idea of printing it, but we will give our readers a mere glance at what, from the Republican stand-point of America, it seems, appears like superlative humbuggery, at which people on this side of the water may laugh or may cry.

The manifesto goes on to say that when the Empress feels the pains that announce the speedy approach of her delivery, the Grand Mistress of her household will carry word to his Majesty and take his orders, and send notice to the Imperial Princes and Princesses, to the mother of the Empress, to Grand Officers of the Crown, etc., all of whom must come to the palace in Sunday costume—the ladies in morning toilette. So it goes on, paragraph after paragraph, full of officials of all sorts, with assignment of their places—some in this room—some in that.

The little fellow was to be presented as soon as possible after his first appearance, by Nurse Brust, to his father and mother, and then to Ministers of State, one of whom will register his birth. Then he was to be carried to his apartment by head nurse, dry nurse, widow Admiral Brust, who would be attended by the sub-Governesses, widow General Bizot and widow Colonel Branchion, of the 50th of the line, (husbands killed before Sebastopol,) and by the General-in Chief of the Imperial Guard, and by the Esquire on service—in case anything should happen on the passage.

Next day comes the private baptism, a ceremony in which the Presidents of the Senate, Legislative corps, grand crosses, grand mistresses, and all sorts of grandees take part. Then there is a Te Deum. Then the grand Chancellor of the Legion of Honor would carry to the baby prince the grand cordon of this order and the military medal.

The public baptism at Notre Dame would be a much grander affair, with a much larger outlay of officials of the most incongruous sorts; such, for example, as the Pope for godfather, by proxy, cardinals and admirals, bishops and marshals, all of whom, without regard to age or sex or corns, must stand, or as the French phrase is, hold themselves on end during the whole ceremony. This ceremony, (the baptism) being finished, the sub-governesses will wipe the child's head and cover it up again. Finally while the Emperor is praying the cortege will reform.

The dresses, baby linen, etc., of the imperial heir, were exposed recently at the shop of Melle. Felicie, in the Rue Vivienne, and great crowds thronged the street to look at them.

Some days previous to the birth, it was stated that the Empress performed her devotions and received the communion in her private gallery of the Imperial Chapel where an altar had been expressly constructed. Signals were prepared at the Palace of the Tuileries, communicating directly with the Invalides, so that in an instant the important intelligence would be announced to the people of Paris.

The presentation of the cradle by the city of Paris for the Imperial infant took place March 31st.

The birth of the infant child, Napoleon Eugene Louis Jean Joseph, took place on Sunday evening and he is declared to be as fine and robust a boy as ever was seen. He is described as rosy, plump, well made, fully developed, and with a surprising abundance of chesnut-colored hair, resembling his father's.

The Emperor never quitted the Empress during her labor and that when her sufferings were acute he frequently consoled her by saying that all Paris were thinking of her, and that all the churches were full of the faithful, praying for her safe deliverance. A little before three o'clock her Majesty's state was such that it was thought proper to introduce into her chamber the grand dignitaries convened to be witnesses of the birth. On seeing so many people about her bed the Empress appeared troubled, and the action of nature was a while suspended. Terrible pains followed, and it is stated that the accoucheurs found an occasion to draw forth the exercise of all their skill and presence of mind. The birth was at last happily effected, and one hundred-and-one guns announced the fact.

It is stated by some that the child is as large as a child two months old, and that when the Emperor saw him he exclaimed, "No wonder that the Empress suffered so much." The Emperor wept abundantly, and falling upon the neck of his cousin, Prince Napoleon, he said to him, "You will, I am sure, love and protect this child."

Within a few moments of the birth of the Prince, at a quarter past three in the morning, the Emperor sent messages in his own name, announcing the event to the Pope, the Queen of England, the King of Piedmont, the Queen of Sweden, the Grand Duchess Dowager of Baden, and I believe, some other courts. It is a very curious fact, as showing not only the wonders of the electric telegraph, but also the activity of great personages at hours when the world at large is wrapped in sleep, that telegraphic messages of congratulation were received in answer before 6 o'clock from the Pope Queen Victoria, and the Queen of Sweden.

Illuminations were very brilliant.

Before the private baptism of the Prince, the members of the Imperial family and the Court attended mass in the chapel of the Tuileries.—The court preacher took a text appropriate to Palm Sunday—"Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini"—"Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord."

After making an ordinary application of these words, the preacher exclaimed, "But your ideas anticipate mine: public gratitude mingles with the new-born editions as the triumphal pomp of the Saviour of the world." Then with an apostrophe, he proceeded—"Lord Jesus, supreme Master of Kings and people, thou hast heard our prayers, and hast granted the wishes of the sovereign and of the country. We return thanks to Thee before our altar, for having given to an august union that [illegible] which forms the joy of this great [illegible]. It is Thou who hast blessed in an heir to the throne both the faith of the Prince who proclaims to all the world his mission and the charity of the pious princess, who honors herself by being the protectress of the unfortunate, and the mother of Thy poor. Complete Thy work, O Lord. Watch over this cradle, the depository of so many hopes. Form him Thyself to the heritage of a great people. Give him his father's genius and magnanimity, from his mother kindness and inexhaustible benevolence; and from both sincere faith and devoted religion. Instil into him a heart [illegible]

Mr. Wedgewood of Cornish, took the floor, and spoke at length against the bill, and in favor of a prohibitory law. He contended that the democratic party amongst the people, are not opposed to a prohibitory law. He spoke of threats held out that he should be voted out of the party, by members here, and defied his opponents to do their worst, declaring that he should be none the less a democrat in any event. He disclaimed following the lead of the author of this report and bill, considering him as neither a democrat nor a safe guide. He commented on portions of the report and bill, and controverted some of the statements and positions of the former. He cited the authority of Daniel Webster as to the power of prohibition—also that of the late C. J. Shepley. He declared that the law now proposed, is a law in favor of rum-selling and rum-drinking; and he denounced the attempt to base such a law on Scriptural precepts and theological principles. He denounced the bill as calculated to open the sluices of intemperance, and cause rum to flow freely in all our cities and towns.

And after discussion on several amendments which were offered and rejected, the bill was passed to be engrossed under effect of the "previous question," by the following vote: Yeas 78—nays 68.

The degraded condition of the poor whites in slaveholding communities is cited further, to explain the Richmond Enquirer's argument in favor of the inalienable right to enslave white as well as black men. The subserviency of the existing Democratic parties to the designs of slavery extensionists is dwelt upon. The party consists of office holders, with the President as a leader, and a few slaveholders of the South who hope to succeed by a possible plurality in some Northern State, occasioned by the division of the opponents of slavery extension. The design of the black oligarchy is to establish a cordon of black republics from Missouri to the Pacific. The degrading consequences of such policy is exemplified in Mexico, where slavery exists under the name of peonage.

A striking illustration of the working of the so called popular sovereignty, is laid down by the Administration, may be seen in Utah, where multitudes of white women are held in servitude as wives, with no restriction by Congress. Douglas's principle allows the people of a territory to establish the full blown Turkish system. What is there in the unlimited permission to form and regulate their own institutions, subject only to the United States Constitution, as Douglas proclaims it, which would prevent Brigham Young from holding sixty men as well as sixty women in servitude? The address concludes as follows:—

"We hold that Congress is bound by the Constitution to make all needful rules and regulations for the government of territories in the United States during their pupilage and preparation to become members of this confederacy, to prevent the growth within them of systems incongruous with the pure and free, the just and safe principles inaugurated by the Revolution."

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE THIRD DISTRICT.—In the doings of the Republican State Committee, published a few days since, there was an error as to the Congressional Committee of the Lincoln and Waldo District. At the Anti-Nebraska Congressional Convention, held at Rockland in the Fall of 1854, the following gentlemen were chosen the Congressional Committee to call future Conventions:

Joseph W. Thompson, South Prospect; Nehemiah Abbott, Belfast; A. S. Richmond, Rockland; Kennedy, Wiscasset; Robert Spinney, Boothbay.

The State Committee hereby recognize the above gentlemen as the Republican Congressional Committee of that District. Republican papers in the District, are requested to publish this correction.

Per Order of Republican State Com.

The Coalition "Gag."

The rules which the Coalitionists have adopted for conducting the "hearing" of Judge Davis, are of a piece with all the other parts of this most disgraceful procedure; they are illiberal, unjust, unreasonable and tyrannical. A detail of them may be found under the Senate proceedings of Wednesday, and an outline sketch of an exciting debate in regard to them, under the House proceedings of the same day. Mr. Morse in some remarks made in reply to Messrs. Levensaler and Talbot, exposes in a pointed manner the gross injustice with which these rules bear upon Judge Davis, and shows very plainly that they are adopted for no other purpose than merely to continue and complete the Star Chamber process which has been thus far so successfully prosecuted by the Coalitionists. See sketch of Mr. M.'s remarks.

Two of the rules adopted by the Coalitionists are obviously and undeniably unjust. We allude to that which forbids the entertaining of any motion in Convention except one to adjourn, and to that which excludes all testimony except in the form of written affidavits. Had this latter rule been adopted at the time the charges were preferred against Judge Davis, and had he been promptly notified of it, the injustice would not have been so glaring and manifest; but to adopt it now, when it is too late for Judge Davis to procure written testimony, if he has not prepared it beforehand, seems such a mockery of all that is just and right, to say nothing of what is decent and courteous, that we almost wonder that Coalition audacity had not shrunk back from such a bold display of partisan unfairness and illiberality.

The rule which allows no motion to be made in Convention may also deprive Judge Davis of some clearly established rights, and can be regarded in no other respect than as a deliberate attempt to "gag" a helpless minority. It is one of the most odious regulations that could be conceived of or devised, and we think the impartial public will clearly discern in it an attempt to crush out freedom of speech and of debate. It is fitting, however, that a procedure which had its origin within the four walls of a "Dark Lantern" caucus room, should preserve its repulsive and disgraceful features even to the end.—Ken. Journal.

I.
My soul is pining to be free!
'Tis cheerless in these gloomy halls;
O give me the greenwood, or the rippling sea,
Where the Spirit of life and love and beauty calls.

II.
My soul is pining to be free!
On spirit wings I steal away,
Where the wild flower opens to the humming bee,
And the birds sing ever through the livelong day.

III.
My soul is pining to be free!
In day dreams, thus it ever sighs—
"O give me the song of Nature's melody,
In the voice of streams and woods and breathing skies."

IV.
My soul is pining to be free!
I hear the morning winds at play,
Through the rustling branches of the forest tree,
And amid the dewdrops on the trembling spray.

V.
My soul is pining to be free!
And, hour by hour, the sad tones fell,
Like the far off murmuring of the midnight sea
Or the ceaseless moaning of the lone bird's call.

VI.
My soul is pining to be free!
I know the wild steed of the plain
Sweeps like an arrow o'er his sandy sea,
And the simoon's breath may follow him in vain.

VII.
My soul is pining to be free!
I know the eagle rocks on high,
Where the wild-toned tempests sing his lullaby,
And the cloud-fires gleam in his unquailing eye.

VIII.
Then let me away, away, away!
My heart, with Nature's, shall beat high,
On yon far mountain, where the streamlet's spray
Glitters in sunlight from the clear blue sky!

It is with no ordinary pleasure that we call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column, of Dr. W. R. We speak from experience, having tested their virtues in our own family. Try them.

"THE LAST SHALL BE FIRST."—An inspired saying, fulfilled in G. W. Stone's Cough, Consumption and Bronchitis Elixir, the best known remedy for coughs, colds, sore throats, &c. Whatever has been done can be done again—so the afflicted need not sink in spirit, but try at once this simple remedy, which has wrought prodigies of wonder.

Reader, are you afflicted with any kind of humors or suffering from the effects of indigestion, flatulency, costiveness, or the piles? If so, consult your physician and he will undoubtedly advise you to procure a bottle of C. W. Stone's Vegetable Liquid Cathartic, as it has been proved a reliable remedy in all the above complaints.

Trial of Judge Davis.

AUGUSTA, April 5.

The hearing in the case of Judge Davis, before the Legislature, was opened by Henry W. Paine, Esq., of Massachusetts, this morning.

The statements of Gen. Anderson, Samuel Fessenden and others, were put in—a protest against the action of convention, plea to the jurisdiction, and an answer to the charges. Mr. Paine's speech was a powerful one. Hon. F. O. J. Smith made a masterly speech of three hours' duration, in the afternoon. Public feeling is strongly in favor of Judge Davis.

The Convention adjourned till Monday at 10 A. M. There was a great crowd in attendance.

Sailing of Steamship Illinois.

NEW YORK, April 5.

The steamship Illinois sailed this afternoon for Aspinwall, with the California mails and about 850 emigrants.

The Cunard steamship Etna, from this port on the 7th March, arrived at Havre on the 20th, making the run inside of 13 days.

The schr Louisine, which sailed from Savannah on the 23d, for New York, loaded with cotton and copper ore, while off Cape Hatteras, at 2 P. M., during a heavy gale, was scoured to be on fire. Efforts were made to extinguish the flames, but it gained on them so rapidly that they had to take to the boat, leaving their clothing, chronometer, &c., on board. They were two days in the boat before they succeeded in reaching the land off the Cape.

Ship Wreck.

NEW YORK, April 7.

An extract of a letter to Elwood Walter Esq., Secretary of the Board of Underwriters, dated Havana, March 29, received April 5, 2 30 P. M., states that the clipper ship Sea Witch, from China, with 500 coolies, bound to this port, struck on the reef about 12 miles west of the port, yesterday morning at 4 o'clock a. m.—Capt. Lang, who arrived here the same morning, reports a heavy sea running, and the ship had bilged. She was three miles off the shore, and it was with the greatest difficulty that they succeeded in reaching the land through the surf. Steamers and launches have been sent down to render what assistance they can. We have not yet heard from them, but trust the lives of the passengers and crew will be saved. It is very much feared the ship will be a total loss.

POSTSCRIPT, dated 30th.—The passengers were all safely landed last evening. The mate and crew are still by the wreck, to save what they can. The vessel will be a total loss.

WASHINGTON, April 5.

Capt. William J. McCluney, recently returned from the East Indies, with the Powhattan, has been ordered to the command of the Norfolk Navy Yard, vice Commodore Sh[illegible], resigned.

ADDRESS OF THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.—A special despatch to the New York Evening Post gives the following [illegible] of the address adopted by the Republican Committee:

WASHINGTON, March 28. The National Executive Republican Committee closed their session to-day. They have issued a call for a National Nominating Convention, to sit at Philadelphia, on the 17th of June, inviting the attendance of delegates representing all the opponents of the slavery policy of the administration.

The address adopted by the committee is ascribed to Francis P. Blair. It is written with his characteristic ability, and is destined to produce a strong impression upon the popular mind. After referring to the nomination of Fillmore, which, not being likely to obtain the electoral vote of a single State, is characterised as an attempt to divide the strength of anti-administration men, the address advocates the surrender of party prejudices, to vindicate the principle of restraining the extension of the slave-holding monopoly, and of maintaining the rights of those in all sections who labor with their hands, from its oppressions, without interfering with the rights of States to dispose of the subject in their own limits as they choose.

The influence of slavery upon the interests of laboring classes is discussed. The interests have been betrayed by representatives from the North and South in the interests of slaveholders who have voted to surrender the public lands to slavery. Hence there are two principles to be asserted—the vindication of free labor in the territories, and the chastisement of misguided representatives who have disobeyed the popular will. The report enlarges upon the consequences of the triumph of Atchison's usurpation in Kansas, with laws and unconstitutional introducing slavery and disfranchising free laborers by test oaths and other disabilities upon the principles of the President's proclamation. Then follows an exposition of the effects of slavery upon the free white people of the South, as shown by the testimony of Senator Clay of Alabama, and Governor Adams of South Carolina. In the latter State it is shown that one-third of the free population control the State government.

Gen. M. Robles, the new Minister from Mexico to our Government, arrived in the Texas from Vera Cruz, and we presume is on his way to Washington. He enjoys the reputation of being one of the best engineer officers in the Mexican army.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC

—AND—

FAMILY PHYSIC,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe, and agreeable physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, Regulates the action of the Liver, frees the stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Tic Doloureux, Gout, Pain in the Head, Side, Stomach, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels—DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA, AND CHOLERA MORBUS, yield at once to its magical influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering from Scrofula, six bottles of the Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness, three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them.—All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe, and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1,00.

PATENT COPPER-COATED IRON SPIKES, BOLTS, DECK BOLTS, COPPERED SHEET IRON,

With all kinds of FASTENINGS used for Ships, from the only manufacturers in the United States—C. & J. MARSHALL, Newport, Del.—superior in strength, and at about ONE-HALF the cost of Copper Fastenings.

Orders sent to TRAIN & PHIPPS, No. 41 Commercial Street, Boston, or to the subscriber, (who is the only Agent for their sale and manufacture in the New England States,) will meet with prompt attention.

Samples sent to order, with certificates from A. A. HAYES, Assayer to the State of Massachusetts, also of Committee on Science and the Arts of the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, and of those who have used and are using the Fastening.

[Copy of a Letter.]

BALTIMORE, Jan. 8, 1856.

Messrs. C. & J. Marshall—Gentlemen: At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper-coated spikes, we, without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper.

We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.

Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) JOHN D. FARDY & BRO.

These Pills Purify the Blood.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidneys the lungs, the skin, and the bowels correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. They soon give a healthy tone to these organs however much deranged, and when all other means have failed.

General Debility. Ill Health.

Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills, that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or where the system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

Female Complaints.

No Female, young or old should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses, at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint—consequently no family should be without it.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:

GREAT

American and Foreign Office,

—FOR—

Securing Patents for Inventions.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U S PATENT OFFICE WASHINGTON

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St, BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, (late Agent of the U S Patent Office under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for patents superior to those offered inventors by others has made arrangements, whereby, on applications prepared and conducted by him THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of … as paid back by others) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal, through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able beyond question to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the … of patents in this and foreign countries prepared; and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

Copies of the claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq. of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

[From the present Commissioner.]

"AUGUST 17 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy Esq. of Boston has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law and the rules of practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
